ABOUT WOMAN'S RIGHTS.

Once in a while—a well, in fact, a great many times—a woman of broad sense and strong intelligence will come to the surface with something practical and sensible on the question of the rights of women. One of this class is Mrs. (Rose Terry) Cooke, who writes an article on "The rights of women," for the September number of the North American Review. Mrs. Cooke examines a few of these rights, which she thinks "ought to be self-evident both to men and women." Her position is this:

First—A woman has a right to respect, as a woman, as long as she respects herself; and then Mrs. Cooke states a fact, as unweilome as it may be to the majority of men, that this respect is difficult for men to exercise when the spirit of the age is against such an opinion; and then she alludes to the newspaper attacks on women, their folly, their extravagance, their ignorance, their shortcomings as mothers, wives, girls in society, mothers-in-law and old maids.

Second—Women have a right to care and consideration on the score of their physical organization, and that the laws of nature laugh at the unreasonable demand that women shall be placed on an equality with men.

Third—A woman has a right to her own religious opinions and preferences; and Mrs. Cooke states that the married woman almost inevitably leaves her own church and goes with her husband, whether he is a member of the church he attends or not.

Fourth—Every mother-woman has a right to share in the decisions of the father concerning their children's education; and this point is well taken: "It is impossible for a man engaged in the active business of life, separated from his children during the week days, and not extremely intimate with them on Sundays, to understand their characters as well as the mother, who is their daily friend and guide."

Fifth—A woman has a right to choose her own husband, for to her belong all the consequences of such a choice. "To a woman a mistake in this matter is a mistake that involves portentous consequences, and no reasonable man or woman should be willing to take the great responsibility of directing or forcing that choice which will make or mar a whole life."

Sixth—A woman should be allowed to choose her own physician, and as trivial as this matter may seem, Mrs. Cooke makes a strong point for this special right of women.

Seventh—Every woman has a right to a home unless stringent circumstances prevent. There may be a nominal home, "where a wife leads such an unconsidered, down-trodden existence, so lone and loveless a life, that it is no real home to her, but simply the dwelling of one in captivity."

Eighth—A woman has a right to the use and control of her own money, whether she inherits it or earns it. "There is a feeling among married men," says Mrs. Cooke, "that women ought not to have money of their own; that they should ask their masters for every cent they need."

These are some of the "unalienable" rights of woman, which are more to be desired, for they are more important than any suffrage plank that can be put in a political platform.

A GOOD THING TO DO.

The discussion going on in regard to removing the remains of General Grant from the "Potters' Field" in New York city, will probably result in good. That the remains should be removed, does not seem to admit of any argument against the proposition. When the general died four years ago New York made a bid for the remains. The city wanted them, and promised to build a magnificent monument to the memory of the great military leader if it could get them. What has New York done? A visitor to the tomb writes as follows: "The picture itself is not pleasant. The tomb itself is most unprepossessing. It looks for all the world like a brick bake oven set in the side of the hill. It is ugly and undignified." The only thing about it that saves the smoke and dust of railway trains, is a road house, or tavern, near by, where people stop while driving cut, for refreshments. A guard is kept there, an old soldier, and this is what he said to the tomb: "It was put here because real estate speculators wanted the ground back. They have laid their way, but good Lord, what would General Grant have said before he died to such a place as this?"

The Kansas City Journal suggests that "this is the outcome of all the promises made by the city of New York, at a time when a nation's grief did not suspect that the ashes of her greatest soldier and citizen were being bid for to help a real estate speculation. We hope some movement will be made, before another congress adjourns, to repair this wrong and remove the remains of General Grant to the place where the nation itself can honor his memory."

It is suggested the Grand Army of the Republic can do no more welcome or congenial or righteous duty than to take the initiative in the work of securing the removal of the remains and thus remedy the great wrong "which is worse than indignity to the illustrious dead."

There does not seem to be any means by which Holzhay, the Wisconsin highwayman, may be adequately punished for his last crime. The stage-coach robbery which resulted in the death of Mr. Fleischbein at the hands of Holzhay, was committed on Michigan soil. The prisoner is in jail at Escanaba, Michigan, and will be tried there. As the death penalty has been abolished in Michigan, as foul and atrocious a murder as can easily be remembered will go comparatively unavenged. If Holzhay had been taken from the sheriff on the way to Escanaba and lynched, the popular rejoicing would have been widespread, however sincerely such an event might have been deplored from a strictly moral standpoint. As matters stand at present, doubt is expressed as to whether the culprit can be convicted or anything more than manslaughter.—Chicago Journal.

There seems to be an opinion quite wide spread that Holzhay will not receive a life sentence for the murder of Fleischbein, but this opinion is not well founded. There is no question that he committed the murder, and there will be no trouble to make the evidence on that point positive and complete.

The other Sunday the Rev. Hugh O. Pentecost, of New York, preached a sermon, in which he said:—"If I knew a burglar was in my house at night I would go to him with a light, unarmed, and talk to him as I would to a friend whom I desired to help. If he then desired to take my goods I would make no protest, nor would I cause his arrest. I would follow him to the door and invite him to call again." This is all very lovely in a sermon, but if Dr. Pentecost had only one night's experience with a burglar he would be apt to change his mind. He would doubtless feel like putting in practice some of Peter Cartwright's "practical christianity," when the pioneer preacher was attacked by ruffians. Every body on the circuit thought it was best not to trouble the Rev. Peter Cartwright after that incident.

A newspaper vote on the best known man in Boston is being taken. Benjamin F. Butler has a long lead, with Moses Pearson, the blind scissors-grinder, a good second. James Russell Lowell and John L. Sullivan are dark horses, one of whom may yet win. The vote being taken in Boston, the chances are that Sullivan will win. It is a historical fact that John L. Sullivan, the prize-fighter, gambler, and wife-beater, had a greater reception in Boston than Daniel Webster ever had, or any of the great statesmen of the country.

The Philadelphia News says that Senator Hampton is mistaken when he states that the republicans will get no hold on the south. Senator Hampton knows a good deal more about the south than the Philadelphia News does.—Mobile Register.

Of course Senator Hampton does. The leaders of the democracy of the south know all about the methods that will keep the republicans from getting hold of the south. Not as long as the democrats count the votes will the republicans be able to get a hold on southern soil.

The fashion of things under a republican administration as illustrated by the St. Louis Globe-Democrat: "It costs Boston $6,000 to entertain Cleveland and only $1,600 to entertain Harrison. This shows that under the present administration a first-class article is to be had at a much smaller price than an inferior one cost when the democrats were in power."

New York wants the world's fair, and it is willing to give its promissory note therefor, which is worthless. Chicago wants the world's fair and is ready to give $12,000,000 spot cash for it. That is the difference between the two cities.

Mexico Adopts Import Duties. CITY OF MEXICO, Sept. 5.—The Mexican government has revised article 1 of its customs tariff, wherein living animals are made free of duty, and has imposed heavy duties on imported cattle, swine, sheep, mules, and goats. This measure can not fail to have a most disastrous effect on the business of supplying this city with meat from the United States. The duty has been placed at 10 cents per kilogram on fresh meat, $5 on each beef animal, $2.25 on pigs, $3 on mules, and $1 on sheep. The decree goes into effect Nov. 1.

Driven to Desertion by Cruelty. SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Sept. 5.—The British ship-of-war Acorn was compelled to put to sea last night owing to numerous desertions. Five sailors seized the steamer cutter Monday night and escaped to shore. Lieut. Valentine, not another deserter, who knocked him down and escaped. The reason given by the sailors for this wholesale desertion is harsh treatment.

THE ANGELUS.

Story of the Greatest of Modern Times Paintings. Francois Millet, the eldest son of the great Millet, and himself a painter, tells this story of the famous "Angelus." "It was thirty-four years ago. My father had not succeeded in selling the picture. He could hardly show it to any one. Nobody wanted it. One day, however, an American amateur made an offer which my father accepted, only too happy at the prospect of receiving some money; but the next day he received a letter from this gentleman telling him that having reflected, he would not buy the picture, as it was too small for the price. At last my father sold it for 1,800 francs." The money paid at one time and another for the painting shows how it has grown valuable with age. It was sold first by Millet to Alfred Feydeau for $360, by Feydeau in 1870 for $600 and was bought not long after by Van Praet for $1,000. He hired it of the painter every visitor stopped before "The Angelus" and murmured, "You can actually hear the bell." This in time so irritated the owner that he exchanged it with John W. Wilson for another work by Millet. It was of course from Wilson that Secretan bought "The Angelus" for $32,000, and now the last price fetched was $110,000.

"Some years ago Ayer's Cherry Pectoral cured me of asthma after the best medical skill had failed to give me relief. A few weeks since, being again troubled with the disease, I was promptly relieved by the same remedy."—F. S. Hasler, Editor, Table Rock, Neb.

THE UMPIRE WAS KILLED.

TERRIBLE TRAGEDY ON A SOUTHERN BALL FIELD.

The Black Uprising—Bandid Holzhay in Irons—A Determined Suicide—The Criminal Record.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., Sept. 5.—A terrible tragedy was enacted on the base ball ground in the little town of Darlington, S. C., William Marshall, a clever young man, the son of Capt. Joseph T. Marshall of Wadesboro, was killed, his slayer being Leon Dargan, 17 years old, the son of George W. Dargan, Congressman from the Sixth Congressional district of South Carolina. The game was being played by the Darlington team against the Wadesboro team, and was umpired by William Marshall of Wadesboro, and a member of the home club and the spectators.

One of the Darlington men in attempting to steal third base ran over and was clearly and fairly put out, and it was so decided by the umpire. Only by the greatest exertion was a bloody riot prevented. Marshall was carried home and every attention given to him, but he died. Dargan has been arrested.

IN NAGLE'S DEFENSE.

Testimony in the Habana-Corpus Case Before Justice Sawyer.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Sept. 4.—T. T. Williams testified in the Nagle case that Judge Terry, while in jail, told him that he knew Paul James Field's nose or slap his face and would be pleased if Field drew a weapon upon him.

M. M. Estee testified that he had known Terry for thirty years and that Terry always carried a weapon. P. D. Wigginton testified that Terry told him he would kill Judge Sawyer if it became necessary to do so.

P. C. Cosgrove, a newspaper reporter, testified that Terry refused to talk with him about Field, but that Mrs. Terry expressed to him her sorrow that the country no longer recognized "the code," since, if it did, doubtless he would have a chance to show his skill at shooting.

FOR KILLING A CHINAMAN.

Belle Elgan on Trial at Taylorville for a Sensational Murder.

TAYLORVILLE, Ill., Sept. 4.—The work of selecting a jury to try Belle Elgan for the murder of Sang Wo in March last, was begun this morning. Eighty-six talesmen were examined, and eight of that number were accepted as jurors. The murder was one of the most foul and cold-blooded ever perpetrated in this country, and the trial is attracting widespread attention. The Elgan woman entered the Chinaman from his laundry in Panama out into the laundry on the pretense that she was bringing him to this city, where they could procure a license and get married. When some three miles from town her accomplice, supposed to be William Williams, stopped up to the Chinaman and shot him in the head. Belle Elgan and her accomplice then went back to Panama, broke into the laundry, and stole some $65. Both were indicted for the murder but were given separate trials.

TRAIN ROBBER HOLZHEY IN IRONS.

Closely Guarded, Although There Seems to Be Little Danger of Violence.

BESSEMER, Mich., Sept. 5.—Train Robber Holzhey is still carefully guarded and heavily ironed in the frail structure used as a jail here. He will be taken to the new stone prison in a day or two. All his fellow prisoners have been put in irons and men scattered about the jail in all directions to prevent crowds from approaching the prison. There is no danger of an attack by a lynching party, and there is absolutely no excitement here. Sheriff Foley sleeps of nights with his prisoner, and says he will protect his captive to the bitter end. It is rumored here that Holzhey has many friends about Shawano who would not hesitate to make an attempt at his rescue. It is a fact, though, that the bandit has no relatives in Shawano. He is not talkative and declines to say who his relatives live. He stated to-day that he came from Germany seven years ago.

SOUTHERN ATROCITIES.

J. C. Engle Says that Negroes Were Shot Down Like Dogs Greenwood. NEW ORLEANS, La., Sept. 5.—J. C. Engle, representing a New York sugar house, and also interested in the cotton trade, arrived here last night. He had been in Greenwood, the scene of the recent riots, and he says the number of negroes that were killed will never be known. They were shot down like dogs, he says, wherever found. In door yards and in houses men, women and children were murdered. "I saw a white boy of 16," continued Mr. Engle, "beat out the brains of a little colored girl, while a bigger brother with a gun kept the little one's parents off. It was the white of the North knew of the atrocities practiced in Mississippi they would feel like sweeping the State from the face of the globe."

WANTED A SURE THING ON DEATH.

A Florida Man Cuts an Artery, Takes Morphine and Shoots Himself.

SANFORD, Fla., Sept. 5.—A razor, morphine and a revolver were the means adopted by William K. Lente, of Seville, Putnam county, to kill himself to-day. He first cut an artery in his arm, then drank a vial of morphine and finally shot himself in the head. Financial difficulties are supposed to have been the cause of this as he had run through with his money and rumor has it also of his mother's fortune. His father was Dr. Frederick R. Lente, a well-known New York physician. At his death, in 1884, young Lente organized a company to start a town south of here. He was also interested in railroads and was well-known throughout the State.

WYOMING'S CONSTITUTION-MAKERS.

CHEYENNE, W. T., Sept. 5.—The constitutional convention adopted the report of the committee on rules, which reported in favor of nineteen committees, and adjourned to give the president a chance to make up the committees.

Bufferers from indigestion, loss of appetite, liver or kidney complaints, rheumatism or neuralgia, would do well to give Ayer's Sarsaparilla a trial. For all such disorders, no medicine is so effective as this, taken faithfully and perseveringly used.

A CARD.

All who are suffering from the effects and miseries of youth, nervous weakness, or loss of manhood, let me tell you a remedy that will cure you, FREE OF CHARGE. This remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America. Send a self-addressed envelope to Mrs. J. J. Jones, 2, N. Main, Section 2, New York City.

THE WASHINGTON BUDGET.

A Complaint Lodged Against the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific Road.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5.—Complaint has been made to the interstate commerce commission by the citizens of Lawrence, Kan., that the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific railroad company refuses to stop its trains at that point or take or deliver passengers or freight. The company has made response admitting the truth of the charge, but say they merely run their trains on the Union Pacific road, which passes Lawrence, and that their contract for the lease expressly stipulates that they shall not do business for any towns lying between Kansas City and Topeka, but only run through trains over the road.

Patent Office Business.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5.—The patent office issued patents yesterday to 413 citizens of the United States and twenty-five to foreigners, making a total for the past year of over 20,000. The New England States, which formerly seemed to have a monopoly of the inventive faculty of the country, do not make a great showing in yesterday's list, as altogether they were not granted as many patents as New York State alone, and if Massachusetts is omitted other New England States are outdone by Ohio, Illinois, and Pennsylvania.

Burned Himself to Death.

COUNCIL BLUFFS, Iowa, Sept. 5.—John Anderson, a prominent farmer in Lewis township, saturated his clothes with coal oil Tuesday and ignited them with a match. He ran yelling through the fields, and was overtaken by a workman, who extinguished the flames. He was horribly burned, the flesh hanging in shreds. Yesterday morning he died in great agony. Grief over his wife's death made him insane.

Will Be No Yellow Scourge.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5.—Surgeon-General Hamilton expresses strong belief that this country will pass through the present season without an epidemic of yellow fever or other infectious disease. This will be largely due to the great care and strict sanitary regulations observed on the coast and in the Southern districts specially liable to visitations of the disease.

The Charleston's Deficiency.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5.—Chief Engineer Melville's report shows that the Charleston's horse-power was greatly below the requirements on her trial trip. She would doubtless be rejected by the government, but at reduced rates on account of this deficiency. The Petrel will also be accepted, but with penalty for failure to reach absolute requirements of contract.

STRIKERS FIRED UPON.

The London Police Fatally Wounded One Man for Obstructing Workers.

LONDON, Sept. 5.—The police fired on a crowd of strikers who were obstructing the work of loading steamers. One man was fatally wounded.

The steamers of the Peninsular and Oriental Navigation company are being loaded by lascars, assisted by the captains and officers of the vessels.

Mr. La Fone, a large warfing, has conceded an advance to his employees, and they resumed work to-day.

To Inaugurate New Strikes.

LONDON, Sept. 5.—There is a marked increase this morning in the number of dockmen and strikers who are obstructing the work of loading steamers. One man was fatally wounded.

John Burns delivered an address to the strikers to-day at Tower hill. He denounced the strikers' rough intermediaries, and declared the reports that the dockmen were going to work. He said it was expected that strikes would be inaugurated at Glasgow to-day and at Southampton on Thursday.

Puddlers' Wages Increased.

READING, Pa., Sept. 5.—The Pottstown iron company at Pottstown has announced an increase in the wages of the puddlers in its three mills from $3.25 to $3.50 a ton, to take effect Sept. 16. Over five hundred men are affected. A year ago nearly all the mills in the Schuylkill valley were paying $3 a ton, since that time nearly all have increased the wages until a large majority are now paying from $3.40 to $3.85 to puddlers, and all other employees in proportion.

Ended at Liverpool.

LIVERPOOL, Sept. 5.—The strike here is ended, the employers having conceded the advance demanded.

A. C. STALEY POISONED.

One of South Bend's Leading Citizens a Victim of a Druggist's Error.

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Sept. 5.—A. C. Staley, president of the Staley Works, Mills company, was poisoned Tuesday night by morphine given him by a druggist for quinine, and will probably die. Mr. Staley took the drug on retiring, and the error of the druggist was not discovered until morning, when Mrs. Staley attempted in vain to arouse her husband. All efforts to bring him out of the stupor produced by the drug have so far proved unavailing. Mr. Staley is 72 years of age and has long been identified with the public interests of the city. He is one of the most prominent business men of South Bend.

Bankruptcy Bill Perfected.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Sept. 5.—The national bankruptcy congress has adjourned, subject to the call of the chairman. The committee on bills decided that the question of a trustee receiving pay after having been removed for cause should be left to the courts, and that if an assignment was proved to be fraudulent the bankrupt should not be discharged by the court. At the evening session several important amendments were made to the Torrey bill, and a committee of five was appointed to urge President Harrison to recommend it to Congress.

What is Scrofula

It is that impurity in the blood, which, accumulating in the glands of the neck, produces unsightly lumps or swellings; which cause painful running sores on the arms, legs, or feet; which developes ulcers in the eyes, ears, or nose; often causing blindness or deafness; which is the origin of pimple, cancerous growths, or many other manifestations usually ascribed to "humors." It is a most formidable enemy than consumption or cancer alone, for scrofula combines the worst possible features of both. Being the most ancient, it is the most general of all diseases or affections, for very few persons are entirely free from it. How can it be cured? By taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, which, by the cures it has accomplished, often when other remedies have failed, has proven itself to be a potent and peculiar medicine for this disease. For all affections of the blood Hood's Sarsaparilla is unequalled, and some of the cures it has effected are really wonderful. If you suffer from scrofula in any of its various forms, be sure to give Hood's Sarsaparilla a trial.

THE POLITICAL ARENA.

WORK OF MANY PARTISAN CONVENTIONS.

Pennsylvania Democrats - Iowa Greenback Ticket - New York and Massachusetts Prohibitionists.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Sept. 3. - Clouds and sunshine alternated Wednesday as the delegates to the Democratic State convention began to arrive. It was about 11 o'clock when Chairman Kiser rapped the delegates to order and requested Secretary Need to read the call. Hon. Samuel W. French of Cumberland was chosen temporary chairman without delay. Mr. Wherry's speech was not long. He criticized the Republican party and the management of the Sinking Fund commission. He closed with an address of the Democratic party, mentioning the name of Hamilton, whereat the convention was soon cheering itself hoarse. The committee were appointed, and the convention then took a recess for half an hour.

For State Treasurer Edward A. Bigler of Clearfield county was nominated. A platform was adopted which reaffirms the tariff-reform declaration of the party, favors free raw materials, denounces trusts, accepts the decision of the people on prohibition as a declaration in favor of the regulation of the liquor traffic, and the prohibition of the liquor traffic. The platform also declares in favor of the equal protection and equal opportunities in every branch of industry, declares the Republican party responsible for corruption in connection with State finances, and condemns the management of the flood relief fund and urges the Legislature to aid the sufferer.

IOWA GREENBACKERS.

A Full Ticket Nominated and a Platform Adopted. DES MOINES, Iowa, Sept. 5. - The State convention of the Union Labor or old Greenback party nominated a full ticket here Monday, adopted a full platform and adjourned. The ticket is as follows: For Governor, S. P. Dowdell of Davis county; Lieutenant Governor, E. L. Brownell of Madison county; superintendent of public instruction, Mrs. H. J. Billings of Polk county; judge of supreme court for full term, H. L. Jones of Davis county; judge of supreme court to fill vacancy, L. H. Weller of Buchanan county; railroad commissioner, H. Griffith. An effort was made to induce Speaker Smith, the Republican nominee for the last named office, and to nominate ex-Congressman A. R. Anderson for Governor, but both movements failed. The platform declares that the policy of contracting currency, the country and locking up in cellars one-third of all the money in the United States to inflate the value of every dollar and every debt has demoralized prices until our farmers, manufacturers, and business men are being driven into trusts or into bankruptcy. This policy has been hid behind a weak tariff war. While forcing the country through financial hell it is entertained by a careless wrangle about tariff taxes.

It is also declared that the public debt should be paid at the face and not at a premium; that money enough should be supplied by the government to conduct the country's business on a cash basis, and that money should be loaned upon farms and other good security at cheap rates; that holders now get it; that railroads, telegraphs, and other means of commerce should be condemned and purchased or new systems built by government and operated at cost; that land grants should be reclaimed; that the income tax should be re-established; all State laws should be enforced against the rich as well as the poor, and such open robbery as flourishes now in parts of the State and is winked at by traitors in office should be put down.

Iowa Farmers' Alliance.

DES MOINES, Iowa, Sept. 5. - At the annual convention of the State Farmers' alliance the secretary's report was read, showing an encouraging condition of the organization. Resolutions were adopted favoring uniformity of school text books, to be furnished by the State at cost; de-manding a law against trusts and laws protecting innocent purchasers; favoring the strict enforcement of the prohibitory liquor law; favoring a 2-cent passenger fare on railways; asking liberal appropriations for farmers' institutes; demanding revision of the tax laws, and favoring a reduction of interest and of the State tax levy.

The following were selected as delegates to the national convention: L. H. Bishop of Sioux City, N. B. Ashby of Fort A. Plummer of Decatur, J. B. Furrow of Tama, and H. B. Kees of Shelby. Officers were elected as follows: President, J. B. Furrow of Tama county; vice-president, S. M. Fairchild of Dickinson; secretary, August Post of Appanoose; treasurer, J. B. Stuckey of Appanoose.

New York Prohibitionists.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Sept. 5. - The Prohibition State convention opened at the Shakspeare hall with a prayer meeting, presided over by E. P. Lee of Brooklyn. There was a fair attendance of delegates, but not as many as were present at the Prohibition convention held in this city a year ago. Many delegates, present as delegates. Around the hall are hung the delegates: "Save the Boys," "For God and Home and Native Land," "Our Name and Our Watchword, Prohibition," etc. The following ticket was nominated: For Governor - Dr. John Blackmer of Springfield.

For Lieutenant Governor - B. F. Sturtevant of Elmira. The platform declares for constitutional prohibition, State and National; recognizes the inadequacy of local option to contend with an aggressively organized traffic, and regards the salient issue of the liquor traffic as one of civil virtue which our country has suffered since its tacit acceptance of slavery.

Massachusetts Prohibitionists Meet. WORCESTER, Mass., Sept. 5. - The State Prohibition convention was called to order Wednesday morning at Mechanics' hall. A permanent organization was perfected, with George Kempton of Sharon as chairman. Prof. A. A. Hopkins of Rochester was made permanent chairman of the convention proper and a State committee was appointed. Five thousand and eighty-seven dollars was raised for party purposes and the convention adjourned over night.

The West Virginia Contest. ALTA, W. Va., Sept. 5. - At Tarra Alta, W. Va., the gubernatorial commission is nearing the end of its labors. Today Mercer and McDowell counties were disposed of finally. The two show a net gain of 198 votes for Fleming. Braxton county was taken up this afternoon and 33 Fleming and 17 Goff votes rejected on a district boundary dispute and on other points.

The Grand Perquisite of Vigor. The dual operation of digestion and assimilation is the grand prerequisite of vigor. To insure the conversion of food into rich nutritious blood, it is only necessary to use with persistence and systematically Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. The fountain head of energy in the animal economy is the stomach. To regulate, to invigorate that organ, and thus facilitate its digestive and assimilative processes, should be the chief aim of those who desire to live long and vigorously. Nervousness, insomnia, feeble appetite, these are usually traceable to impaired digestion. Overcome this and you of necessity dismiss its multifarious, perplexing and harassing symptoms. The emaciated can never hope to gain firmness so long as assimilation is imperfect. The Bitters surmounts the only obstacle to an increase not only of vigor, but of bodily substance. Conquer also with the Bitters malaria, kidney and liver complaints, rheumatism and all diseases of the blood. Thoroughness characterizes its effects.

THE GREAT FUTURITY RACE.

Ex-Congressman Scott's Chaos First, With St. Carlo a Close Second.

SHEPHERDSON, N. Y., Sept. 5. - A cloud of dust, a flash of silk, the shouts of 30,000 persons, and Chaos, son of Rayon d'Or and Lillie R. Scott, the twenty-three starters assembled on the paddock for the race and received the finishing touches. When the last bell sounded they came and in single file paraded by the stand, making a beautiful show. They were soon made to incur speed. At the head of the flag went down to a beautiful start. Santiago had the advantage, with Alaric Lovell second. Onaway, King's Own, Protection, Penn. and St. Carlo and Fredrickson were next. The others were well bunched, with St. Carlo in a bad position. At the end of the first furlong the lot was stretched across almost aligned. At the head of the homestretch Chaos had a lead of two lengths. Eberlee and St. Carlo were next. By this time half the field was whipping, but it helped them none, as the leader still held his own. As they came to the regular judges' stand St. Carlo and Sinaloa were too short, and Chaos got the verdict of a good neck. St. Carlo was two lengths in front of Sinaloa.

Other Turf Events.

At Springfield, Mass., Sept. 5, won the 2:18 trot in 2:10. Alcyon the 2:22 trot in 2:18, and Roy Wilkes the free-for-all pace in 2:15.

"Look on this picture and then on that." The above faces are exact reproductions of photographs taken from life of Mrs. Morton D. Harlan, who resides at No. 55 West 25th Street, New York City. The first one was taken in November, 1887, when in the last stages of consumption, abandoned by physicians and mourned by friends. The other was taken in December, 1888, when completely recovered, and entirely cured for consumption. The above pictures are well known, but they are true to life and the original photographs, taken from life, can be seen at all the drug stores. Mrs. Harlan's consumption began as consumption usually does, with cough in the morning, raising of phlegm, tired and depressed feelings, a lack of appetite, loss of flesh and pains throughout the body. She did not have her extreme danger until she became almost too late, but she is in perfect health. Dr. Acker's English Balm for Consumption is sold by all reputable druggists. You can't afford to be without it.

this morning was returned to Sheriff Babcock's care for another term of ninety days.—Little Willie Ryan, son of Dennis Ryan, of Footville, fell from a horse last evening and broke his left arm. Dr.
Palmer was called to set the broken arm.
He pronounces it a serious accident.—Ald. Horn and Dick Sisson spent yesterday at Tiesben point on Lake Koshkonong. They report grand sport, but no ducks. Twenty-two jacksnipe, plover and other small birds composed braska, has recently purchased the McChesney mill property at Indian Ford; also, the 20-acre farm on the Footville road owned by G. B. Stevens. Mr. Martin is a thorough business man, and will make Janesville his home.—The many friends of Mr. C. H.

Wilcox will be pleased to know that he is now associated with the Milwaukee to meet the patrons of former years. Mr.

Wilcox is an old clothing man and thoroughly understands the business. Call years with McKee Bros. has accepted a Co. will not exhibit at any of the fairs this fall as it is impossible for them to Rock County Caledonian Society is being held this afternoon at the office of the president, Dr. James Mills. There is a goodly number of members in attendance. The principal business to come before the meeting is that of securing a meeting room or hall for the accommodation of the members. Several places are talked of the old free library room in the Bennett block, the old Odd Fellows hall in the Smith block, and Columbia hall. It is not known at this time which choice will be made.—It is said that one of Janesville's attorneys having "swore off" drinking ardent spirits in the city, can be seen most any afternoon near a large hay stack just north of the city limits, at which point he spends much time. A recent investigation of the surroundings of the hay stack brought to light numberless empty bottles, many of which indicated that they once contained beer, others of different shape probably once contained something stronger. The farmer says he has no use for the "empties," and that the aforesaid attorney is welcome to the property on call.—The Evening Wisconsin:—"Mrs.

Ole Anderson, of Janesville, Wisconsin, and two children came to Milwaukee yesterday in search of her husband, who eloped with another woman some time ago. She could not discover his whereabouts, and was assisted by the poor authorities to return home to-day." There is very little truth in the elopement part of the above. Anderson left his wife and children here some six weeks or two months ago, going, it is supposed, to St.
Paul or Minneapolis, and he did not take a woman with him. Anderson is a tailor, and was formerly in the employ of F. N.

THE PROCESSION.

AN ANCIENT CUSTOM—HAS THE SALVATION ARMY A RIGHT TO PARADE?The fact that the city authorities are just in the midst of litigation regarding the city ordinances prohibiting public parades of the salvation army, will create an interest in all matters pertaining to processions, and customs surrounding the same. The following little bit of information is taken from the current number of Texas Siftings:—One of the strongest impulses of man is to march in procession. He considers it one of his inherent rights, and to attempt to deprive him of it would produce a revolution. The German might give up his beer, though it is doubtful; the Italian relinquish his macaroni; the Frenchman abandon his wine and garlic, and the American consent to sit without tobacco or railing, but all would resist to death an attempt to abolish the procession. There are processions of joy and processions of sorrow, processions of triumph and processions of humiliation and defeat. Friends march to a wedding and a christening, and when you are dead they will form a more or less mournful procession under the grave and subdued direction of the undertaker —last parade of all. What great celebration is ever without its procession? If the committee of arrangements didn't provide for it the people themselves would evolve it by the force of natural instinct. It is the accepted symbol of popular rejoicing.
When the news was received in northern cities of the fall of Richmond and surrender of Lee, how quickly processions were formed to give expression to public joy. Man is not the only animated creature that moves in this way. Did not the animals, birds and things make a procession into the ark led by Mr. and Mrs. Noah arm in arm? And is there not reason to believe that they deeded Ararat in the same order, and this, too, before there was a brass band to march by? [The wallflet Jericho fell from sheer weariness at seeing an endless procession circling around, and the patience of the heavens must sometimes be severely tried by the monotonous march of the seasons. But let us try to keep up with the procession.]

THE BATTLE BURN.

MATTERS DECIDED BY JUSTICE PRICHARD THIS MORNING.Some weeks ago Sheriff Babcock attached the steamer Billie Burr, under attestments in favor of D. K. Jeffris, Fifield Bros., Ezra Warren, J. B. Green, Hanchett & Sheldon and some others.
Sheriff Babcock while holding the boat in his possession run it up and down the river, earning over $40 clear of expenses.
Shortly after earning this money, H. E.
Merrill and Hiram Merrill with Ezra Warren, who had judgments against Burr, the owner of the boat, garnished the sheriff for their judgments. The matter came up before Justice Prichard and this morning. The justice held that the money earned by the boat while in the possession of Babcock, belonged to Burr, and further ordered that it be paid over to Merrill and Warren. All parties holding liens against the boat were desist of holding the money. As the matter was never decided here before, it will undoubtedly be appealed to the circuit court. The plaintiffs, H. E. Merrill, Hiram Merrill and Ezra Warren, were represented by Nolan & Cunningsham; Fethers, Jeffris & Fifield appearing for the other attachment creditors.

IMPROVEMENTS IN PASSENGER CARS.

The Wagner Palace Car Company is revolutionizing the equipment of its cars and making them superior to anything of the kind in the world. One of the greatest improvements is the lighting of the cars with gas. [The New York Central & Hudson River Railroad Company is also equipping its passenger coaches with gas. About one hundred of them running out of New York city have been so equipped. The gas is compressed in a cylinder under each car, and one filling of a cylinder will last the round trip between New York and Chicago. The gas is made from petroleum, and furnishes a 60-candle power light as against a 10-candle power light under the old method. Coaches lighted with gas are as light as a parlor, and passengers can read as well in the night as in the daytime.—From the Rome (N. Y.) Sentinel.]

THE WEATHER.

At seven o'clock this morning the thermometer indicated 58 degrees above zero. Clear with a west wind.At one o'clock p. m. the register was 70 degrees above zero. Clear with west wind. For the corresponding hours one year ago the register was 49 and 76 degrees above zero.

THE SOCIAL SEASON.

IT IS DULY OPENED AT THE ARMORY LAST EVENING.The Light Infantry armory was the scene of a very merry party last evening, and the cheerful rooms handsomely decorated and brightly illuminated, were in striking contrast to the dismal atmosphere outside.In response to some five hundred invitations issued by Hon. and Mrs. Hiram Merrill, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wiggan, Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Merrill, Miss Marion C. Wiggan, and Miss Jessie E. Merrill, the hall was comfortably filled, and in spite of the forbidding weather, but few regrets were noticed. The guests commenced to arrive at 7 o'clock, and from that time until nine o'clock they continued to come.
The preparations for entertaining so large a company were complete, and the home-like air that prevailed in every department was refreshing.The lower hall was appropriated for a dining hall and an appetizing spread was served from early in the evening until midnight.Dancing also commenced at an early hour, and with social chat the evening rapidly dwindled into night, and the wee small hours found the company still entertained and fascinated.Many rich costumes were noticed; but the pleasantest feature of the party was its hearty good cheer, and a general discussion on the part of everybody to have a good time. Genuine hospitality was extended and heartily enjoyed. The party will be remembered as one of the pleasantest and most successful ever given in the city.

A NEW ENTERPRISE.

THE JANEVILLE CONSTRUCTION COMPANY ABOUT TO ORGANIZE."Are you looking for an item?" asked a well known mechanic of a Gazette reporter this morning. "If you are, I guess I can give you a small one."The Gazette representative assured the gentleman that an item was what he wanted at this particular time."You see, a lot of us mechanics have got together and now propose to organize a stock company for the purpose of manufacturing anything that comes our way. Of course, building will be our main object, anything from a chicken coop to a palace on court house hill. We shall also build houses for shipment west or any other point desired. We shall organize and elect officers according to law, and all stockholders will be in the hands of a board of directors. All stockholders will be employed by the company so far as possible. We think a company of this kind will be a success here. Men at work for themselves, generally do better than when working for other people.
We shall have the company so organized that there will be no "freeze out" game played, and the number of shares each man is entitled to will be limited. It has not been determined yet what amount of capital stock will be issued, that depending entirely on circumstances. Some of our best mechanics will be in the organization, and we are determined to make it a success. Rockford and other cities have like companies that are doing well and making money.
There is no reason why we shall not do as well cared for. You see, a company like the one we propose, can compete with any of the old builders of the city, and it becomes necessary we can establish a lumber yard in connection with the other business, and be as independent as any."The gentleman assured the reporter that the company would file articles of association or corporation some time next week, when further details could be published. The Gazette is pleased to note this move on the part of Janesville mechanics, and sincerely trusts their efforts will meet with success, of which there is scarcely a doubt.

TWO GOLD MEDALS.

TO BE AWARDED AT TRINITY CHURCH NEXT TUESDAY EVENING.Next Tuesday evening a service will be held at the Trinity church, at which time Dr. Boyce, of Beloit, will deliver a sermon. At this service two medals are to be presented to two members of the boys' choir, one for good behavior and one for best attendance. The medals are beautiful and will be prizes indeed for whoever is fortunate enough to receive one. The services will all be appropriate to the jubilee by the choir.
After the exercises at the church the choir will repair to the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Doe where a supper will be served. A joyous occasion is in store for the members and friends of the Trinity choir.

TODD'S.

"BURTON AND INDIA PALE ALKES" are acknowledged by judges to be superior to the Imported English Ales. They have the virtue of being strictly pure—nothing save malt and hops, and of the choicest quality, enters into their composition. Consequently all the nutritive and restorative properties those ingredients are known to possess are found in the "Burton" and "India Pale" ales.

How is Your Liver.

The old lady who replied when asked how her liver was, "God bless me, I never heard that there was such a thing in the house," as noted for her ability.
Froemeyer, when chained to a rock, might as well have pretended to be happy as the man who is chained to a diseased liver. For poor Froemeyer, there was no escape, but by the use of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets, the disagreeable feelings, irritable temper, constipation, indigestion, dizziness and sick headache, which are caused by a diseased liver, promptly disappear.Dr. B. MINCEY, the eminent physician of Detroit, Mich., will visit every town in this county during the summer. Anyone suffering with weak eyes, or eyes sore, or with rheumatism, should not fail to see him. Orders left at the postoffice will be promptly attended to. No extra charge for examining or visiting patients at their homes.

THE ENGLISH SPARROW.

Millions of the Little Pests Now in Rock County.

AN EDICT TO EXTERMINATE

Some Interesting Things Relating to the Birds and Their Habits.Secretary of Agriculture, Hon. J. M.
Rusk, has issued a circular in effect that the English sparrow must be exterminated. According to the Raising Journal an effort is now being made in that city to enforce the order. Two young boys having slaughtered nine hundred and fifty, but that paper fails to note that any sparrows have been missed. Janesville has an abundant stock of the little pests at this time, and ere winter sets in, barn, building cornies, and like places will swarm with them.It took about fifteen years to convince the American public that the sparrow was a pest rather than a benefactor.
There were protests from naturalists earlier than 1870, and the report that British farmers regarded the bird as an unmitigated nuisance made some people a trifle nervous. But up to a certain date scores of enthusiastic "benefactors" of the country were urging its introduction in increased numbers, and aiding and protecting those already brought by every possible means, even to the enactment of city ordinances and police regulations. During the next decade, however, more opposition was developed, and although sparrow enthusiasts were still providing nesting-boxes by the thousand and food by the barrel in many cities where they had become abundant, and the disposition among practical citizens to let the invaders shift for themselves steadily increased. Toward the latter part of this period a few laws which had particularly protected them were repealed, but in very few places were active measures adopted looking to the limitation or suppression of their increase.W. T. Hill, of Indianapolis, trapped over 40,000 sparrows round the grain elevators and warehouses of that city, but the birds continue superabundant in and around that city. Many thousands have also been shot for food, but without visible effect.It is estimated that at least a thousand times as much energy and money have been spent already in fighting sparrows in America as were expended in introducing and encouraging them.The magnitude of the evil and the necessity for abating it are proved by an analysis of the replies received by the agricultural department as to the damage by sparrows. The reports as to the injury to buds, blossoms, and foliage of crops from thirty-one states, the District of Columbia, and Canada, and consist of replies from 584 observers. Of these 265 allege positive damage of varying kind and degree, 12 are undetermined, and the remaining 307 are favorable to the sparrow, at least negatively inasmuch as that they report no damage of this kind observed. By far the greater part (234) of these negative reports, however, have little weight, being brief, often monosyllabic, negatives written in reply to the schedule questions without anything to indicate the extent or closeness of the writer's observation. Less than one-twentieth—scarcely less than a dozen reports, in fact, indicate that in spite of good opportunities and careful observation, no injury to buds or flowers has been done. Ninety observers report injuries to foliage of vines, shrubs, and trees through the sparrows roosting or nesting in them in large numbers.One hundred and twelve report injuries from the eating or wanton destruction of buds and blossoms of fruit trees. Forty-six report injuries to trees or vines without specifying the nature or extent of the damage.As to the sparrows' ravages on fruits, garden seeds, and vegetables, the opinions are quoted of 788 persons, of whom 472 gave testimony against the sparrow, 270 gave testimony more or less favorable (but, as under the preceding questions, mainly negative, as the result of scent observation), and 37 gave testimony which was partly favorable and partly unfavorable. Grapes seem to have been especially injured, and in California, where grape culture is an industry of paramount importance, the English sparrow has taken firm root and is multiplying and spreading with an ominous rapidity; and unless steps are taken to wipe out the pest at the earliest possible moment the result probably will entail a loss to the state of many thousands, if not millions, of dollars.Equally serious is the loss to grain.
Of 750 answers, 183 only favored the sparrow, while 567 spoke of more or less serious injury from its ravages. The habit of working around the edges of a field seems to be characteristic of the sparrow, and is mentioned in scores of reports. Blackbirds, ricebirds, and others which damage grain are more apt to avoid the edges of the fields and settle in the midst of grain, where they are less likely to be disturbed, but the sparrow seems to seek safety in the same way, but feeds unmolested wherever he chooses.
